The processional gateway can be built with enormous wooden doors, or without them. Fits in nicely with a tower on each side, as shown below.

Step 1:

Cut and score as shown, careful of the spikes on top. Apply glue to the two big end tabs and fold the gate over, making sure the spikes stand straight up. Apply glue to the small tabs on the bottom.

STEP 2:

Fold the bottom over and tuck the tabs in. You should have two sets of tabs protruding from the inside of the arch as shown in the first picture below, the one marked "attach door here" and the one with the printed texture. If you don't want doors, simply glue the back of the textured tab and fold it over the white tab. Done! If you want doors, apply glue to the back of the doors but not the big tab, for now. Slip each door over the "attach door" arch tabs and fold the textured tab over the big tab attached to the door itself. It fits over like a sandwich. Align the doors and pinch them onto the tabs.
